

Opponent-process theory

Three opponent pairs:

red vs. green,
blue vs. yellow,
and black vs. white.

In each channel, a neuron
can be excited by one color and inhibited by the opposite color.

Colorblindness/Color vision deficiency (CVD)

When one or more of cone types are absent or do not function properly

Normal vision

